Dear Mr. Harshberger:-

The Coat of Arms was handed down through the family and is authentic - it was given to me by the 85 year old daughter of John Harshbarger and has been in the family since Christian arrived in 1749.

The best to you and yours in 1968 -

Cordially
Hugh P. Harshbarger

Mr. Hugh P. Harshbarger

The Lion is gold on the left side and silver on the right--indicating two branches of the family.

The Motto, STILLE WASSER SIND TIEF, means "Still water runs deep", not too talkative.

INTRODUCTION

My interest in a Family History started in 1910 when I was asked to furnish our family data to Rev. Harvey Hostetler of Council Bluffs, Iowa. In 1912, I bought the "Hochstetler Book No. One", and found our number to be 5627. I have used this grand genealogy many times for this history of ours, and have placed that number after each name with "H" after the number as 5627H, when transferred.

The Bitche (Beachey) Memorial History was used many times, and so a "B" is added to that data, as 192B.

These two families came from Switzerland to America, in Pennsylvania, then migrated westward, at the same time as our Hershberger families did. So naturally there was considerable intermarriage for this record.

My genealogy interest was rekindled when I came to Wisconsin and helped some with the family tree of my wife's people, the John Ritchie's. I still keep a complete card file of all their records up to date. They held their 70th annual reunion this year.

What about the Hershberger ancestors? Origins? Relatives? I couldn't resist! So many years ago I started digging. We visited Uncle Levi's families in Hubbard, Oregon, for a delightful experience. We attended a Hershberger Reunion of Uncle Noah's families in Hart, Michigan and met 74 grand relatives and got the records of all their families. Letters? I have written hundreds.

A day in the Genealogy Library of the Mormon Temple in Los Angeles, brought the clue to Uncle John of Arthur, Illinois, and a direction to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hershberger (grandson of Uncle John) Kokomo, Indiana. They have really helped, to the tune of over five-hundred descendants.

Many helped me to get Uncle Joe's records of Harper, Kansas, some of Uncle Sam of Jennings, Oklahoma, and most of Uncle Seth's families of Shipshewana, Indiana.

However, the five who remained in Ohio have not responded much. So at over four score years of age, I had better stop and print what I have for future generations to add to, correct, and enlarge.

the whole Hershberger Genealogy records. Who will do it?

For any errors or omissions that I have made, I am sorry! I beg your forbearance.

Recently I asked a man about his ancestors. Quite proudly he answered, "I have no ancestors." What a poor man he must be. Where did he come from? Oh, made himself, I guess!

What a rich heritage I have found, in learning more about our ancestors, their religion, their faith, integrity, and genuineness.

YOUR OWN STORY

Has anybody told you
That every thought you think
Makes lines just like the little lines
You write with pen and ink?

And thoughts of anger, fear or hate
Will spoil the prettiest face
By making ugly little lines
Which nothing can erase.

But thoughts of love and kindness,
And jovousness and cheer
Make very pretty little lines,
All fine and firm and clear.

And by and by your face becomes
An open storybook
Which every one can see and read
Each time they chance to look.

So if you want your face to tell
A story sweet and fair,
You must see that only good thoughts
Do any writing there.

Father, Daniel P. Hershberger
with his beautiful stallion,
Kentucky Dick

Our father #97, Daniel P. Hershberger was a lover of fine horses. He crossed the Kentucky Chief with the Morgan strain. Then to get more speed he used the Hamiltonian Ten Cross. For lasting endurance he used the wilder Arabian sire, and got an excellent strain in the offspring, that could work hard, go fast, and also take it.

Likewise our ancestors came from the rugged mountains of Switzerland where the wilder eastern European invaders, the Huns, the Vandals, and Goths were stopped by the rugged Alps, and the people of the powerful Roman Empire. Here the invaders met the milder, more peaceful Christian influence, that had come from beyond the Alps in Italy and the Mediterranean.

The invaders became the government rulers by strength. But as time advanced, and the Christian influence spread over Europe, it formed the Reformation.

This produced severe conflicts, punishments, persecutions, and banishments for these religious groups of Switzerland by the governing strength. These Anabaptists, Dunkards, Amish, and Mennonites fled to Palatinate, Germany in large groups. There they found no security. So they floated or went down the Rhine River as best they could to Holland only to find some persecutions there.

But when William Penn got large tracts of land in America from the English, and invited or offered these hardy deeply religious persecuted people an opportunity to sail with him to America, it was welcome news indeed. To them it was religious freedom, a new country, where they could live, work and do what their consciences dictated.

William Penn brought many others, too, from Holland, Germany, and along the Rhine. This mixed group of people settled into new territory, known as Pennsylvania. Their different languages became a mixture, too, but mostly Low German and is still known as Pennsylvania Dutch.

Both sides of our family have descended from these hardy religious groups, who have stuck together and kept their faith, through all these years, by migrating in groups.

By research, I have found that eight Hershbergers came to Pennsylvania in the seventeen hundreds. Four were known to be brothers. Jacob, Casper, and Christian came in 1749. Heinrich came in 1768 and brought some of his three brothers' inheritance to them.

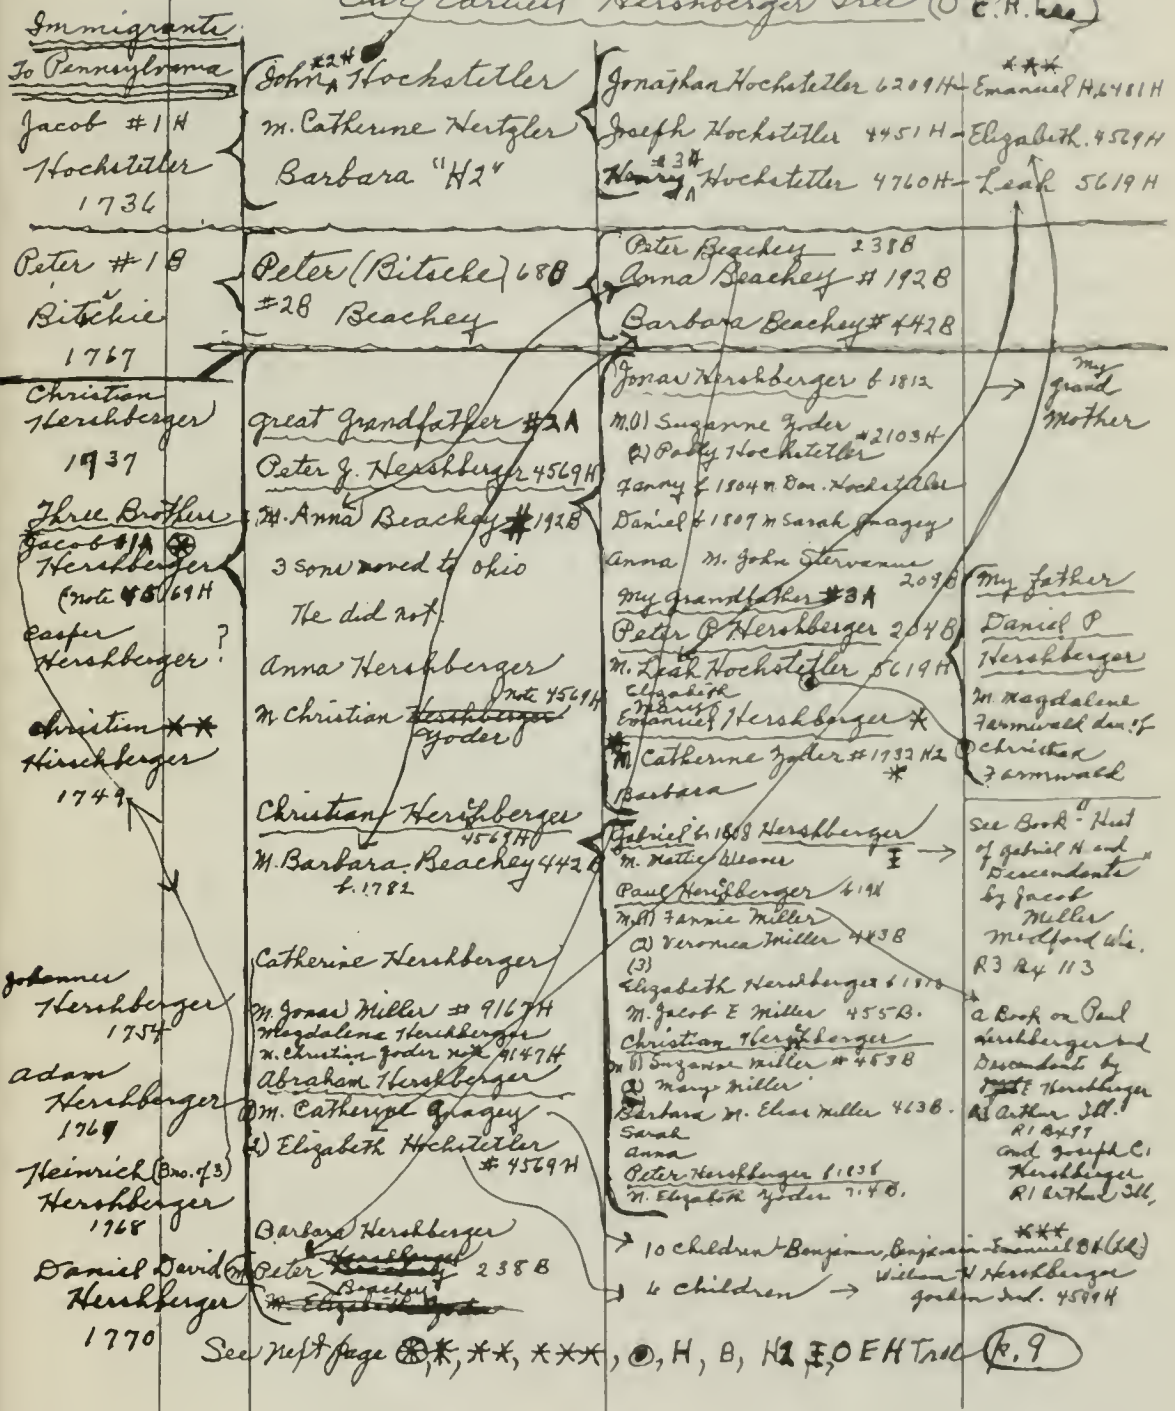

A Christian Hirschberger came in 1737 from Bavaria, Germany with his daughters, Anna and Barbara, and his son, Peter. Johannes came in 1754. Adam Hersperger came in 1767, and David in 1770. Seven came from Switzerland.

ORIGIN OF OUR NAME

Hirsch means "deer", and berg means "a mountain". So people living on or near a deer mountain could easily be called Hirshbergers. There also is a village by the name of Hersberg about fifteen miles from B asel, Switzerland. So any one coming from there might be called Hersbergers. Many of the immigrants could not sign their names, especially in English, so they made an X and told their names. The names were written as they sounded. So we have various spellings from Hirschberger, Hershberger, Herschberger, and the families that went to Virginia used Harshbarger. Take your choice.

The following earliest family tree was compiled from many sources over the past sixteen retired years. So misinformation may have crept into this tree. Sorry for any errors. So of course, I will appreciate any official, accurate information that will correct any part of it.

Our Earliest Herschberger Tree (O.E.H. tree)

NOTES FROM OUR EARLIEST TREE

- ⊛ Was our Jacob #1A one of the three brothers who came to Pennsylvania in 1749? My research indicates "Yes", but I would like positive proof.
- ** This Christian is the probable one referred to in the book--"A Part of the Harshbarger Lineage of the Len C. Harshbarger Family," by Hugh P. Harshberger of Palatine, Illinois 60067. (It is out of print.) Our "Coat of Arms" comes from this book. Thanks.
- *** The Los Angeles Hershbergers #6489H originate from Emanuel Hochstetler, viz. Andrew Hershberger, Pamona, California, Mrs. E. B. Hershberger, wife; daughter, Mrs. Goodwin Knight; and son, Richard B. Hershberger, Atty., all of Los Angeles, California. The second Hochstetler Book H2 gives the Hershberger connection as Emanuel, Benjamin, Benjamin as the son of #4569H2 Abraham Hershberger and Catherin Gnagey. Abraham was a brother of my great grandfather, Peter J. Hershberger and Anna Beachey #192B. So the Los Angeles Hershbergers are directly connected to our Hershbergers as well as to the Hochstetlers. See next page for ***.
- ⊙ Leah Hochstetler was my Grandmother Hershberger #5619H and later my Grandmother Farmwald. Figure it out.
- "H" used in this book refers to the Hochstetler Book # one. With a number as 5627H means the data was taken from that grand book "Descendants of Jacob Hochstetler" by Harvey Hostetler. (1912) (Out of print, being reprinted)
- "H2" refers to the second Hochstetler Book, of Barbara, the daughter of Jacob. She married Christian Kauffman. It also refers to Joseph and Christian, her two brothers.
- "B" means the data was taken from the Peter Bitsche (Beachey) Memorial History. Reprinted July 14, 1953 by Mr. and Mrs. Ivan J. Miller, Grantsville, Md. (Books available, 1968)
- ‡ The "History of Gabriel Hershberger and His Descendants, 1808 to 1968" was written by Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Miller, Jr. of R. 3, Box 113, Medford, Wisconsin 54451. (Available)
- * An Amish family, Lester S. Miller, R.2, Amherst, Wisconsin has descended from Emanuel and Catherine (Yoder) Hershberger 1732H2. Emanuel Hershberger is a brother to my grandfather, Peter P. Hershberger. Their connection is: Barbara E. Hershberger, daughter of Emanuel Hershberger married Samuel Troyer #7563H2. Their daughter Amanda S. Troyer married Tobias S. Miller #7702H2. Their son, Samuel T. Miller married Lydia Troyer, and their son, Lester S. Miller married Anna Miller, the daughter of D. P. Miller. To them 13 children were born, viz.: Lydia Mae, Wilbur, Paul, David, Elmer, Tobias, Samuel, Barbara Ann, Calvin, Daniel, Elva, Rose Ellen, and Mary Sue.

See OEH Tree--Our Earliest Hershberger Tree p.9

*** (Continued) Virginia Hershberger was the wife of Ex-Governor Goodwin Knight, one of the most respected and loved Governors of California. He died May 22, 1970. Mrs. Emanuel B. Hershberger's son, Richard, married Jane Taylor.

Two children:

1. Linda Hershberger b.7/28/1959
2. Gary Hershberger b.4/5/1964

MY UNCLE

I loved my Uncle Goodwin,
In fact, I always will,
It seems like he's still living,
But I know that he was ill.

I know he went to heaven,
'Cause I knew he wasn't well,
Yet I see him in my dreams,
And I know I always will.

MY GRANDMOTHER, LEAH HOCHSTETLER'S ANCESTORS

Our grandfather, Peter Hershberger #A3, married Leah Hochstetler #5619H, b.1821, d.1898. Her ancestors are traced back to Europe in the book by Harvey Hostetler called "The Descendants of Jacob Hochstetler, The Immigrant of 1736" dated 1912. Much of our history is taken from this book. "H"

Leah Hochstetler was the daughter of Henry Hochstetler #4760H and Sarah Yoder, his second wife. (Farmerstown, Ohio) From Summit Mills, Pennsylvania.

Henry Hochstetler was the son of John Hochstetler #2H and Catherine Hertzler of Elklick, Pa. They had moved from Berks Co. to Somerset Co. in 1784.

John Hochstetler was the oldest son of Jacob Hostetler #1H of Bernville, Pa., who was born in 1704 and died 1776. He came to America with the Wm. Penn migrations landing at Philadelphia, Sept. 1, 1736, on the ship Harle. His son, John, was about 3 years old when the ship landed.

Jacob Hostetler probably married Miss Lorentz. They had six children: John, Jacob, a girl, Joseph, Christian and Barbara.

If you want more of grandmother's fascinating early history, read the above named book. I have a copy.

THE HOCHSTETLER MASSACRE

The Hochstetler families always tried to be friendly to the Indians. But the Indians were being pushed out of their hunting grounds and sometimes fought back savagely against those that disturbed their peace, or mistreated them.

One spring, food was scarce. The Indians demanded food and other things. Grandma Hochstetler thought they were asking for too much. They, too, had very little. So she refused to give it all to them. This angered the Indians. As they left the house, one Indian picked up a coal and drew a rude picture on the wall of the porch, and uttered angry words. This frightened the family, yet nothing happened for several years.

But when the French and English declared war, the French easily got the help of the Delaware Indians who fought savagely against the English intruders, by devastating, burning, scalping, and then swiftly withdrawing to the mountains.

On the night of Sept. 20-21, 1757, about ten Indians surrounded the Jacob Hochstetler home after midnight, and set fire to their buildings. The family went to the basement. The top of the house burned off. The Indians thought they were burned up and left. The family crawled out a basement window. They had nearly escaped when a lone Indian, Tom Lions, spied them from the orchard where he had stopped for some ripe peaches. Tom gave the war whoop! The other Indians came back. They scalped young Jacob and a girl. But they first stabbed Grandma Hochstetler through the heart and then scalped her, as a sign of special vengeance.

Jacob Sr. was taken prisoner, and two boys about 10 and 15 years old, Joseph and Christian, were spared and taken along by different tribes. The squaws adopted the boys by taking them into a river and washing away their white blood, by pulling out their hair one by one except the topknot, and by dressing them up like Indians. The boys were treated so well, that when the war was over, and prisoners were exchanged, one boy hesitated to come back to the whites, but later returned.

The oldest son, John, was married to Catherine Hertzler. They were living on the next farm and saw the fire and Indians. They expected to be next. So John quickly took his wife and child into a thicket away from the buildings and hid them. He then returned to find the Indians gone, all of his father's buildings burned, and discovered the tragic massacre of his mother, brother Jacob, and a sister. The father and two brothers, Joseph and Christian, were missing. Barbara was away visiting.

One account mentions that daylight was brightening the eastern sky, and frightened the Indians away. No one will ever know for sure, but if there had been more time, and John expected to be next, our line of descent could easily have been broken.

The little son, Henry, was one that was hid in the thicket. Henry was our grandmother Leah's father. Was he spared by the dawn?

Could you be reading this if Henry had not been spared that early morning in 1757?

Little events in our lives cause great changes in future generations!
